

Summer Reading Resources

Print this fun Summer Reading Bingo Card from Scholastic and students, get to reading! Parents sign the completed card and students can bring into class the first week of school for a prize.

<https://www.scholastic.com/content/dam/teachers/articles/migrated-files-in-body/printable-bingo.pdf>

Book Lists

ALSC \(Association for Library Service to Children\) website.

Summer Literacy Challenge! Included here are ten ideas for parents that can make summer a time of learning, creative expression, and above all, fun!

Start with a Book is a fantastic website full of ideas about summer reading activities you can share with your kids. Each theme includes book ideas, activities, websites with interactive media, and much more.

Local Summer Reading Programs:

Gwinnett County Public Library Reading Program

Loganville Library Reading Program

Bookstore Summer Programs

Barnes & Noble Summer Reading

<https://www.barnesandnoble.com/blog/kids/get-ready-for-bns-summer-reading-triathlon/>

The Story Shop

If you have not checked out this local "whimsical" children's bookstore, put it on your summer to do list! It is only a 15-20 minute drive from Covenant to downtown Monroe. Visit their website for book club information, storytime schedule & special events.

<http://visitthestoryshop.com/home>

Books by the Pound

Yes, books are actually sold by the pound! Check out this new, local bookstore for an incredible selection of used books. Childrens storytime every Thursday.

Visit their website for more information.

<https://www.booksbythepound.com>

Scholastic Summer Reading Challenge

<http://www.scholastic.com/ups/campaigns/src-2017/>

Books with online quizzes - Sylvan Learning:

www.bookadventure.com/Home.aspx

Need help finding the "right book"?

<https://www.lexile.com/fab/>

